THE OLD MAN (5/3/03) Key of G (starts in D)
CHORUS: D G When the old man fell down the mountain D C When the old man fell down that day D G When the old man fell down the mountain C G D An Eternity, An Eternity, slipped away.
C G D Ten thousand years of rain and ice and snow
C G D Your leaving us we thought would be so slow
C G D Your old stone face profile was ours for a long while
C G D Still it's hard to let the history flow
TURNAROUND: C G D
C G D You never know how long some things will last
C G D A friend is here today and then he's passed
C G D We looked and you were gone, the times keep moving on
C G D Ten thousand years went by too fast
CHORUS
C G D For ages you watched over us below
C G D Forests cleared completely then regrown

C Farmsteads came a	G and went, be	D efore your time	was spent
C If you could talk the	G wisdom we	D could know
TURNAROUND: C	G D
C The Northstar chan	G ged its plac	e while on you	D r guard
C Dan Webster called	G I your face (	God's business	D s card
C In this state's where	e we make r	_	y defend
C No wonder that this	G losing you	D is so hard.
CHORUS			